Customer Reviews

This book was the worst for editing. The plot, like the rest of the series, was very predictable. Still no depth to characters, poor sentence structure, and after eight books one would have hoped the author would have improved her writings.

... and her stories of Crystal Cove are wonderful, I become distracted by all the typos. If someone, other than that of the writer herself could proof read her writing, we readers could truly appreciate the story and not have to stop and make sense of a sentence. I found over 20 typos, extra 'the' s and lower case ' i ' s, when referring to an ones self. I'll still keep reading !

I really enjoyed this one. The series is getting really good, the story telling is flowing much better than the earliest ones. I cant wait to read the next one ! Worth reading !

Again good work. I really do like these story's. But please keep up the good work I hope you are working on book 10.

After losing her powers for a year, .a witch who has solved many murders with them,is on a case again.
