Customer Reviews

I wish this was my first Tarot book. That would have instantly made me a "kickstart professional" for using this book does bring you on an inner level of professionalism which you can easily match with your outer appearance as a professional: again, with the help of TAROT FLIP. Marcus Katz, a true genius of the Tarot world and the man behind tarot professionals dot com and tarot dash town dot com and his trusted co-author Tali Goodwin created a masterpiece allowing you to learn the deep subconscious core and meaning of Tarot cards: using NLP techniques the authors interviewed hundreds of Tarot Professionals with their hundreds of different decks on the meanings of cards to get to the very soul of each of the 78 cards. Now you can short cut years of book learning and get a simple answer for any card in any position in any spread. The revolutionary addition to each card's description is the "What you say" section: a prompt of how you announce the card to the client, for example, with the 7 of Swords, which was one of the most challenging cards for myself when I was first starting out: ("upright: Trespass, reversed: Integrity"): "In this card, we see in the situation for which we are reading some indication of deceit - someone is breaking the agreement." or "When this card is reversed, we know that all is being honestly presented." Simple? Yes. Brilliant? Beyond brilliant! To give you a full taste of what a card presentation is like in TAROT FLIP, I will share the rest of the 7 of Swords with you. Theme/Framework: Exchange Oracular Title: A Sign Reading Don't Walk on the Grass. Flip Title: A Man Borrowing Books from a Library.
