An astrological symbol book for every birthdate from January 1, 1900 to December 31, 2000. It does not center on any one particular sign, as in the listing of Sun-sign characteristics (ie: Aquarius, Pisces, Aries... etc). Rather, it has the symbols of the 12 signs of the zodiac and the corresponding planets under which they fall. Plus, the solar and lunar eclipses, the conjunctions, trines, sextiles and so forth, along with the full, new, third and quarter moon symbols and the varying degrees. A great tool for the student of astrology and the teacher, alike. This non-committal book is for the young, the golden senior, the middle-aged, the male or female, boy or girl, the single, the married, the co-habitants whether platonic or intimate, for the gay, the lesbian or the bisexual, the employed or the unemployed, the wealthy, the less fortunate and the middle-classed. Anyone from any walk of life, can interpret the symbols within this book by way of an easy to read and understand chart, that is listed on the inside flap of the cover. It's interesting and it's fun. And, you yourself, devoid of any guilt trips, have the non-coerced choice to believe or not believe in it's validity and how it relates to your life or that of a friend or loved one. Simply put: It is available for any and all who care to look.

Period. It does not advocate a particular religion or a prescribed system of beliefs. Rather, it is neutral in its application. It's there if you want to utilize it, no strings attached. If it's not your 'thing', ignore it and go about your business. For just as the symbols of basic arithmetic correspond to addition and subtraction, so too, does this non-discriminatory book provide a tool of guidance as relating to the 12 constellations which the Lord Himself, created.
