Burn This! A 300 Moons Book Bad Boy Alphas by Tasha Blackwell. I love reading this awe-inspiring tale of shifter children that spans and impacts the lives of these special shifters. It's revolves around this spell that helps shifter children control Malone and their animals for 300 Moons and the discovery that we answers to all our actions good or bad. This is the second book in the series and it's just as amazing as the first. After Bait This I was so excited to start reading the other children stories, who was taken care of by Kate Harkness and spelled by Mrs Cortez for 300 Moons. Burn This is book 2 in 300 Moons Bad Boy Alphas, this series is a another Tarker's Hollow series. I've never read anything by Tasha that I didn't love reading, of course this past all my expectations and more. From the beginning to the end I was absolutely captivated. I fell in love almost instantly! The way Tasha transports her readers between the Realistic and Paranormal worlds is really fantastic, unique, and well done. Her writing style is sharp, vivid, grabs your attention from the first page. Neve Whittaker is a nurse who has a gift and she loves helping people. She is also known as the Angel of Malibu because of the people she's helped to recover. So when Johnny checks in she feels drawn to him like no other patient. She feels there is something different about him. Johnny Lazarus is a rockstar and a shifter which he feels is a monster. Johnny had a spell put on him by Mrs Cortez that helped him keep his shifter side under control. But his 300 Moon is almost here and the spell may wear off. So as his control slips Johnny decides the perfect place to be is Malibu Sanctuaries and checks himself in. Even though his mom asks him to come home.
