Fire Song (City Of Dragons Book 1)

Synopsis

There's a serial killer stalking dragon shifters in Sea City, and pretty boy Detective Lachlan Flint wants my help tracking the killer down. I'm a dragon shifter myself. Penny Caspian's the name. But I'm trying to lie low, not run around interrogating half the dragon community or one dragon in particular. My ex. Yeah, I left my destined mate. I know, I know. Dragons don't do that. Trust me. It's better this way. This detective, though, he's not taking no for an answer. Did I mention he's pretty? But haunted and hiding something. There's some deep-down trouble in that boy's hollow eyes, and I got enough trouble of my own. Vampire motorcycle gangs. Wounded gargoyles. Locked dragon crypts. Maybe it's because I saw that shifter's broken body, washed up on the beach. Maybe it's her dead, empty eyes. It's something, the hell if I know what, but I am going to find that killer. This is my city, and I look after my own.

Customer Reviews

WARNING - very mild spoilers (numbers 1 thru 8) I really love dragon stories & was looking forward to reading this book. Boy, what a disappointment. Why? Well, to start with, I thought the story was ridiculously dramatic and too gloom & doom. For instance, the author went way too far with the dangers and pitfalls of being a dragon. To show you what I mean & to give you an idea as to what this book was like, let me give you some examples of a dragon's life: 1) Gargoyles were created solely to fight & kill dragons. 2) Drakes are hybrid monsters created from eating dragon meat. 3) Drakes become addicted to dragon meat, living to kill & eat dragons. 4) Slayers hunt & kill dragons, then dice up their bodies to sell on the black market. 5) Witches & Mages use every part of a dragon's body (pieces) for their magic. 6) Human Hate Groups blame dragons for all magic so they hunt & kill them. 7) Humans drink dragon blood to become vampires. 8) Vampires crave dragon blood because of the taste & to gain power. 9) Naturally the plot is that of a serial killer butchering dragon girls. 10) And then there's the (over-the-top) problems with dragons shifting and reproducing and mating and... Ok, I'll stop here & wrap this up. Obviously it really, really sucked to be a dragon. And sadly, the long suffering heroine of this story was - of course - a dragon. But don't worry too much about the heroine, because she was definitely not alone in her misery. You see, all the other characters in the story had tragic, heartbreaking lives as well (including the poor Hero). The theme here seemed to be - misery loves LOTS of company. By the time I was approx. 40% into the book, I was skimming page after page.
