Customer Reviews

My husband bought this book for me. As the first installment of the tribe books from White Wolf's revised Werewolf game it was a treat. White Wolf's writing gets better and better as it offers the female only Garou tribe. WW used its style of story first, to present the mindset of the group. This works well to help the reader understand where things are to go. It presents a history of the Tribe tying it in with real world events, going over many injustices women have endured. After reading it my comment to my husband was, "you probably don't want to talk to me for a time." The book gives new gifts (magic powers), fetishes (magic doo dads) and totems that are for the Black Furies only. Also they give the statement that many Storytellers and Players of the game forget, that there is no truth in the White Wolf universe
